THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

Mr. John W. Killigrew

Brockport, New York 14420

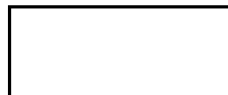

Dear John:

Thank you for your nice letter concerning my new appointment. It will be a tough assignment, but I will give it the very best I've got.

It was good to get all the news on what you have been up to since last our paths crossed. I well remember those good days in the 50's when we were trying hard to understand the Chinese scene. It's not much easier now but the new relationship between that country and ours does offer some interesting new insights.

All the best to you and thanks again for writing.

Faithfully yours,

E. H. Knoche
